

CELTIC ELITE

In 1999, Paddy O'Neill formed Celtic Elite Soccer Training with one goal in mind: Teaching youths and young adults the important foundation of soccer techniques.

Through a structured training program, participants can expect an improved performance during games and practices alike. Dedicated trainers are committed to the development of soccer skills for novice and experienced players.

Celtic Elite Training Academy is an individual technical training program, created to improve player's ability and skill level in a small challenging environment.

Celtic Elite offers programs year round. Please visit the website for the latest information.
